This was followed by a patriotic cultural program by the teachers of all the three schools. Welcome dance was gracefully executed by Timpany School teachers. The teachers of Timpany Steel City School sang the National song, Vande Mataram and danced gracefully to the song 'Bharat Anokha Raag Hai.'

Creative virtual activities were conducted to make students realize the value of sacrifices made by our freedom fighters through collage, fancy dress competitions, patriotic songs, and elocution. Designs were made using flowers, fruits, pulses, and vegetables in the tri colours to display the talents and abilities of students. Flags were also drawn by the kindergarten students, to inculcate the spirit of freedom.

The student choir comprising Reena, Ruah and Tiqwah, lent their voices for the song 'Desh'. Dances depicting the sacrifices of Indian soldiers were showcased on the stage by the teachers of Timpany Senior Secondary School. The Principal of Timpany School, Mrs. Christobel Stevens on expressed her gratitude on behalf of the management and the three schools.

शुभ संकृत दवस। वसंकृतदनम्

On 23 August, Timpany School celebrated World Sanskrit Day online. The students' enthusiasm was unmatched, which proves that Sanskrit is reaching the youth with the help of technology. A cultural extravaganza of dancing and singing to the beats of one of the oldest languages of the world inculcated a sense of pride and nationalism in all those witnessing the virtual program.

Boston GreenFest

Boston Greenfest is a World Peace Game held on 14-15 August. Speakers discussed solutions to challenging scenarios of world situations. This online event helped students to hone their public speaking skills and gain exposure to world challenges on an international platform. Some of the speakers were Elizabeth Thompson, Greg Watson, Daniel Sundaram, Jule Bravin. Timpany School (ICSE & ISC) speakers were Srijita Dutta, Lehar Choraria, Om Kashyap, and Charita. It was a great event for all involved.

BE INDIAN BUY INDIAN

by Vinitha Rezeena, Principal
Timpany Steel City School

The students of middle school performed a role play based on the poem "In the bazaars of Hyderabad" written by Sarojini Naidu, who protested against the British rule. They showcased the wonderful sights and smells of the local Indian bazaar. Their enthralling performance encouraged others to love Indian products and support Indian sellers.

AMAZING CREATIVITY

A healthy nation contributes to a wealthy nation. Based on this idea, a food art activity was conducted. The students participated actively and exhibited their creativity using fruits and vegetables in tricolours as India celebrates its 75 years of Independence.

India is so diverse that a world can be witnessed within the country.

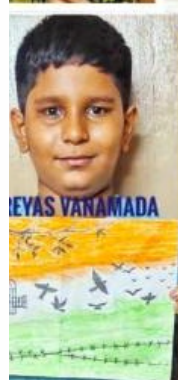

DIVERSE INDIA

"A Nation's Culture resides in the hearts and in the soul of its people"

Students of Timpany Steel City School had participated in various activities to commemorate the glory of 75th Independence Day. They showcased their patriotic fraternity and enthusiasm by their active participation in poster making, collage work, slogan writing, role plays, and painting competitions.

THE FORGOTTEN LANGUAGE

by Vinitha Rezeena, Principal
Timpany Steel City School

In a bid to reminiscence the origin of all the languages, and to spread its reverence Sanskrit Diwas was held. Children participated enthusiastically in various activities like slogan writing, recitation, role play, speeches, to keep this language alive, so that we may continue exploring and understanding our civilization roots.

LOVE THY NEIGHBOUR AS THYSELF

True power comes from serving and helping others. The ability to help each other is what sets humans apart from other living beings. And through this emerges the true power. The students of primary wing portrayed the characters of people who deliver their service to the society and express their gratitude towards them.

TELUGU DINOTHSAVAM

TELUGU DINOTHSAVAM is observed on 29 August every year. Various competitions were conducted throughout the month of August. Children participated actively in slogan writing, singing, recitation, painting with the theme Grameena Jeevanam, elocution on the topic Jaathi Ratnalu and Ekapatrabhinayam (monoaction).
